

Each class is unique and exciting!!

Koodles for Kids is an exciting combined art and singing class for boys and girls ranging from 1st grade to 6th grade.

Your child will experience two unique classes to help inspire their creativeness in art and singing with different styles each week and of course lots of FUN!!

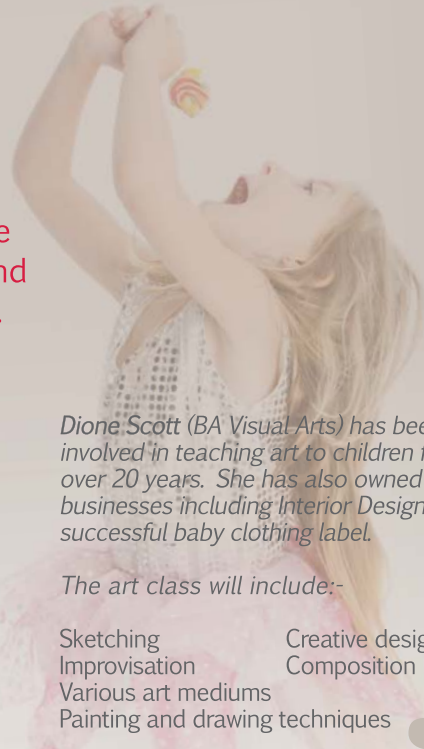

This is a creative combination where both classes are taught separately (art and singing). The theme of each class overlaps and explores the genre being taught.

Kristy Coote has extensive experience as a Professional singer/songwriter for over 15 years and has taught children from Sydney to Nashville.

The singing class will include-

- Breathing techniques
- Variable vocal range
- Microphone technique
- Pitch correction
- Stage work
- Confidence

With different styles such as contemporary, musical theatre and world music.

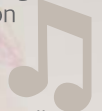

Dione Scott (BA Visual Arts) has been involved in teaching art to children for over 20 years. She has also owned two businesses including Interior Design and a successful baby clothing label.

The art class will include:-

- Sketching
- Improvisation
- Various art mediums
- Painting and drawing techniques
- Creative design
- Composition

A diverse range of subject matters will be explored, including recognised artists, aspects of design and cultural & periodic influences.
